FARAD CONTINUATION SHEET.
IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
NAGPUR BENCH : NAGPUR.

CRIMINAL APPLICATION No.1241/07.

=-=-=-

4. The accused has been arrested by the police and now seeks bail.

5. The learned counsel for the applicant submitted before me that the applicant/accused is not at all concerned with the crime, in as much as, it was Bhagwat – father of the children – alone who had thrown the children in the well. He particularly invited my attention to the statement of Nikita, one of the daughters of Bhagwat, who was thrown in the well. The statements shows that it was Bhagwat alone who had thrown children in the well. Similarly, my attention was invited to statement of one Vishaka – the other eye witness. She has also stated that it was Bhagwat alone who thrown the children in the well. Obviously, this statement definitely goes to show that this present accused is prima facie not connected with the crime. In view of this, he deserves to be released on bail. Hence, the order.

Accused/applicant be released on his entering into personal recognizance bond in the sum of Rs. 5000/- with one surety in the like amount.
